

HISTORICAL COMMISSION OF MILFORD

Memorial Hall, School Street
Milford, MA 01757

Chairman Robert Andreola called the April 13, 2022 meeting of the Milford Historical Commission to order at 7:04 pm in Memorial Hall. Motion to accept the minutes as read was made by Pam Fields, seconded by Ron Marino. Motion was unanimous.

Pam completed the Conflict of Interest exercise making all members compliant.

Bill Farrell introduced himself as a person who is now retired and interested in contributing time to Milford where he has raised his family.

Jennifer Doherty, Massachusetts Historical Government Program Coordinator, notified Bob that we are welcome to offer input to the new "Demolition Delay Guide." Bob responded, no, and that we don't have a demolition delay by-law in town. Jennifer offered her assistance anytime.

Bob reorganized the shelf on the bottom of the cabinet. All the large envelopes contain duplicates and negatives and are marked with a circle noting the items inside.

We now have a balance of $131.84 in our budget after setting aside money for the internet.

Ron reported on the Museum as he added items that have been donated.

Anne suggested asking Dr. Kevin McIntyre to resume having school children, maybe 4th graders, tour the museum to learn our history and encourage appreciation for the town.

Bob Samiagio has scanned the blue binders up to #9. He also visited the Landmark Place project and commented on the awesome view of the town from the top floor of the building.

May Richards will resume cutting out newspaper articles that are important for our files.

Dates for our upcoming events are: Celebrate Milford, May 14, open to visitors 11 am to 2 pm; the North Purchase District School, opened on August 14, with a rain date of August 21, and our Annual Open House, featuring Eric Mulak from Eldred's Auction House in October.

Sue Ciaramicoli from the Hopedale Little Red Shop extended an invitation to visit their museum.

Motion to adjourn at 8:30 pm was made by Jim Miller, seconded by Ron Marino. Motion was unanimous.

Respectfully submitted,
Anne Lamontagne
